

Under Governor Mill's executive order, individuals are required to wear face coverings in public places where physical distancing is difficult to maintain, as recommended by the U. S. CDC.

Who needs to wear a mask?

According to the order, Individuals must wear a face covering in public settings where other physical distancing measures are difficult to maintain". That means any person over the age of two, with some exceptions.

What kind of mask?

Mask must have ear loops or ties that secure the mask over the nose and chin.

Face masks with holes, mesh or valves are not allowed.

Neck gaiters, open-chin triangle bandanas, and face coverings containing valves, mesh material or holes of any kind are not acceptable face coverings

Exceptions?

Children two and under, people who have trouble breathing or related medical conditions, those who can't remove a masks without help.